

PRIVACY POLICY

At LF Business Services, we respect and protect the privacy of our clients and those who use our products and services. The following Privacy Statement provides details about how your personal information is collected and used. This privacy statement applies to LF Business Services website, products and services.

Information Collection and Use

LF Business Service is the sole owner of information collected on our website, through our email newsletter, or other business related activities. We will not sell, share, or rent this information to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement. LF Business Service collects information for the purpose of doing business, staying in touch, or educating our existing and potential clients.

Sharing and Usage

We will never share, sell, or rent your personal information with third parties for their promotional use. Occasionally, we enter into contracts with third parties so that they can assist us in servicing you. The contracts prohibit them from using any of your personal information for their own purposes, and they are required to maintain the confidentiality of the information we provide to them. We may also disclose information to partners who introduced you to LF Business Service's services in order to ensure they are properly compensated for their efforts. Lastly, we may disclose or report personal information in limited circumstances where we believe in good faith that disclosure is required under the law. For example, we may be required to disclose personal information to cooperate with regulators or law enforcement authorities, to comply with a legal process such as court order, subpoena, search warrant, or law enforcement request.

Notification of Changes

If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post those changes on the LF Business Service Website, so our visitors and our clients are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any, we disclose it.
